Mayor Collins thanked the Union for its constructive relationship with the City and acknowledged their concerns. He noted the importance of identifying an appropriate peer group for compensation comparisons and provided an overview of benefits offered in Cheyenne compared to other Wyoming communities, including retirement, wages and specialty and longevity pay. Mayor Collins stated that, in many cases, Cheyenne’s compensation is more favorable and noted that working in other states can involve a higher cost of living due to factors including income and property taxes. He also provided a brief overview of the City’s proposal. Mr. Thoms requested a recess at 6:43 p.m., and Union members vacated chambers to the HR conference room to caucus.

Mayor Collins reconvened the special session at 7:11 p.m., at which time it was agreed to adjourn until the next meeting.
