Dear Mayor and City Council Members,

Frontier Trampoline Park is requesting a liquor license. Being a family entertainment business, we would like to be able to fulfill the request from parents for an alcoholic beverage option while they are here. We have taken the necessary steps to meet the requirements for the liquor license and have attached all documents relevant to this letter.

Frontier Trampoline Park opened February 15th, 2020. Just before the height of COVID struck our country, we opened with big aspirations to add Family Fun to the community of Cheyenne. Over the course of the five years, we have had an over pouring number of requests to offer canned beverages for adults while in our establishment.

We are dedicated to conducting our business in full accordance with all applicable state and local regulations. We recognize the significance of responsible alcohol service and will ensure that our staff receive proper training in responsible serving practices.

We are requesting your consideration for a Restaurant Liquor License be approved, to fulfil the parents' request for canned alcohol beverage options while visiting the establishment.

Thank you for considering our application, please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information or clarification we look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Wyatt Bodray

12. ALTERATIONS. Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements in said premises without the consent of Landlord, in writing first had and obtained (which consent shall not be unreasonable withheld), and all alterations, additions and improvements which shall be made, shall be at the sole cost and expense of Tenant, and shall become the property of the Landlord, and shall remain in and be surrendered with the premises as a part thereof at the termination of this Lease without disturbance, molestation or injury. If the Tenant shall perform work with the consent of the Landlords as aforesaid, Tenant agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of Cheyenne or any other authorized public authority. The Tenant further agrees to save the Landlord free and harmless from damage, loss or expense arising out of the said work. Tenant agrees that Landlord has the right to make alterations to the premises which do not interfere with Tenant's business.

13. INDEMNIFICATION. Tenant, its successors and assigns, agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord from any liability for injury to or death of any person or damage to personal property of every kind and nature arising from or in connection with the use and occupancy of the Demised Premises caused by the negligent acts or omissions to act or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant's employees, contractors and agents, or by the failure of Tenant, or Tenant's employees, contractors and agents to fulfill Tenant's obligations hereunder. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Lease.

14. FIRE REBUILDING AND ALTERING

a. If the Demised Premises, any permanent additions or leasehold improvements thereto, and/or any buildings or other improvements located within the Shopping Center shall be damaged, destroyed, or rendered untenable, in whole or in part, by or as the result or consequence of fire or other casualty during the Term hereof, Landlord shall repair and restore the same to a condition substantially similar to the condition existing immediately prior to such casualty, but in compliance with all regulations by authority having jurisdiction as of the date of restoration. During any period of repair or casualty, the Rent, Real Estate Taxes, Insurance and Fixed Common Area Maintenance Charges herein provided for in this Lease shall abate entirely in case the whole premises are untenable or if Tenant determines in good faith it cannot economically conduct business from the undamaged portion of the Demised Premises. In the event of a casualty which damages only a portion of the Demised Premises and Tenant continues to operate in the remaining portion of the Demised Premises, Rent, Real Estate Taxes, Insurance and Fixed Common Area Maintenance Charges shall be reduced based on the square footage of the Demised Premises which is not used by Tenant. Said abatement shall cease when the Demised Premises are restored to tenantable condition.

b. In the event the Demised Premises or a substantial portion of the Shopping Center, because of such damage or destruction, are not repaired and restored to tenantable condition within ninety (90) days from the date of such casualty, Tenant may, at its option, terminate this Lease by giving sixty (60) days prior written notice to Landlord and thereupon Tenant shall be released from all future liability and obligations under this Lease.

c. If the Demised Premises are damaged or destroyed during the last six (6) months of the Original Term or any Option Periods or extensions of this Lease, to the extent of more than one-third (1/3) of the ground floor area thereof, Landlord or Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to the other party given within sixty (60) days following such casualty, provided, however, that Tenant may vitiate a termination by Landlord if Tenant elects to exercise its next option to extend the Term of the Lease.

15. LIENS AND INSOLVENCY. Tenant shall keep the leased premises and property in which the leased premises are situated, free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished, or obligations incurred by Tenant. In the event Tenant becomes insolvent, voluntarily or involuntarily bankrupt, or is judicially declared incompetent, or if a receiver, assignee or other liquidating officer is appointed for the business of the Tenant, then the Landlord may cancel this Lease at Landlord's option.

16. DEPOSIT AND DAMAGES.

a. Termination of this Lease by Landlord for breach of any terms or condition hereof by Tenant shall not discharge any obligation due to Landlord for rent or damages hereunder. Any deposit held by or in trust for Landlord as security for the fulfillment of the terms of this Lease by Tenant May, at Landlord's option, be applied on the last maturing rental installments hereunder, if this Lease is performed to the end of its terms. But in case of prior termination by Landlord for default of Tenant, such deposit May be retained by Landlord as liquidated damages, for Tenant's breach hereof: without affecting any obligation then due from Tenant under the terms of this Lease.

b. Any balance due to be refunded, if this Lease is performed to the end of its terms, will be sent to Tenant within 90 days of termination with a full accounting. Tenant will provide mailing address to Landlord by the termination date.

c. Landlord acknowledges that Tenant has paid a deposit in the amount of $17,565.80.

d. Landlord acknowledges that Tenant has paid $17,565.80 for first month's rent, CAM, and estimated taxes and insurance.

e. Landlord acknowledges that Tenant has paid $17,565.80 which will be applied to Tenant's last month's rent and expenses.

f. The entire amount described in sections 16c, 16d, and 16e ($52,697.40) will be fully refunded to Tenant if this lease is cancelled due to Tenant not receiving financing as outlined in section 33 of this Lease.

17. COMMON TENANCY. If the premises Leased herein includes any part of the building in common use by other tenants of the same building, then Tenant agrees to conform to all reasonable rules and regulations that may be adopted by the Landlord pertaining to such portions of the building in common use. Said rules and regulations may include adoption of reasonable parking allocations and specification of areas so designated as customers only, employees, delivery vehicles, etc.

18. ASSIGNMENT. Tenant shall not let or sublet the whole or any part thereof nor assign this Lease or any part thereof without the written consent of the Landlord, or Landlord's agents, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. This Lease shall not be assignable by operation of law. If Tenant is a corporation then any transfer of this Lease from Tenant by merger, consolidation, or liquidation, and any change in ownership of, or power to vote, the majority of its outstanding voting stock shall constitute an assignment for the purposes of the Paragraph. In the event of any assignment so consented to, a change of fifty percent (50%) of one month's rent shall be made by Landlord in addition to required attorney's fees for their services in transferring or assigning this Lease, and shall be paid by Tenant. Consent to one assignment of his Lease, or interest therein, shall not be deemed consent to any further assignment. Tenant shall not sub-lease nor assign unless they are in full compliance with all provisions of this agreement. Without specific authorization from Landlord, Tenant May not exercise an option to renew this Lease agreement unless Tenant intends to so occupy same. Landlord to agree to assignment if Tenant's company is being sold as a whole to anyone that has equal or greater net worth than Tenant, at the time of this lease.

19. ACCESS. Tenant will allow Landlord or Landlord's agents free access at all reasonable times to said premises for the purpose of inspection or making repairs, additions, or alterations to the premises or any property owned by or under the control of Landlord but this right shall not be construed as an agreement on the part of the Landlord to make any repairs, all or such repairs to be made by Tenant as aforesaid. The Landlord shall have the right to place and maintain "For Rent" signs in a conspicuous place on said premises for ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of this Lease. Signs will not be placed for the purpose of gaining an advantage to renew or renegotiate this Lease.

20. SIGNS. No sign shall be placed on the premises, including marquees and window signs, permanent or temporary, without the express written permission of the Landlord. Landlord is to also approve design, color and construction. All such signs shall so conform to ordinances of local governing agencies. Any signs or marquees so placed on the will be at the sole cost of the Tenant and shall be so placed with the understanding and agreement that Tenant will remove same at the termination of the tenancy herein created and repair any damage or injury to the premises caused thereby, and if not so removed by Tenant the Landlord may have same so removed at Tenant's expense.

21. DEFAULT AND RE-ENTRY. If any rents above reserved, or any part thereof, shall remain unpaid when the same shall become due or if Tenant shall violate or default in any of the covenants and agreements herein contained, and if such nonpayment or default shall continue for more than (10) days following written notice to Tenant, the Landlord may cancel this Lease upon giving the notice required by law and re-enter said premises, but notwithstanding such re-entry by the Landlord, the liability of the Tenant for the rent and other amounts provided for herein shall not be extinguished for the balance of the term of this Lease and Tenant covenants and agrees to for the balance of the term of this Lease, and Tenant covenants and agrees to make good to the Landlord any deficiency arising from the re-entry and re-letting of the premises at the lesser rental than herein agreed to. The Tenant shall pay such deficiency each month as the amount thereof is ascertained by the Landlord.

22. COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES. If by reason of any material default on the part of the Tenant it becomes necessary for the Landlord to employ an attorney or in case Landlord shall bring suit to recover any rents due hereunder, or for breach of any provision of this Lease or to recover possession of the leased premises; or if Tenant shall bring any action for any relief against Landlord, declaratory or otherwise, arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party will be entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee and all costs and expenses expended or incurred by the Landlord/Tenant in connection with such default or action. Any such action shall be commenced and maintained in Laramie County, Wyoming regardless of Tenant's or Landlord's residence or place of business.

23. NON WAIVER OF BREACH. The failure of the Landlord to insist upon strict performance of any of the covenants and agreements of this Lease, or to exercise any option herein conferred in anyone or more instances, shall not be construed to be waiver or relinquishment of any such, or any other covenants or agreements, but the same shall be and remain in full force and effect.

24. REMOVAL OF PROPERTY. In the event of any entry in, or taking possession of, the leased premises as aforesaid, the Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to remove from the leased premises all personal property located therein, and may store the same in any place selected by Landlord, including but not limited to a public warehouse, at the expense and risk of the owners thereof, with the right to sell such stored property, without notice to Tenant, after it has been stored for a period of thirty (30) days or more, the proceeds of such sale to be applied first to the cost of such sale, second to the payment of the charges for storage, if any, and third to the payment of any other sums of money which may then be due from Tenant to Landlord under any of the terms hereof, the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant.

Tenant agrees that at the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant will quit and surrender the said premises in a broom clean condition, and deliver up all keys belonging to said premises to the Landlord or Landlord's agents.

27. EMINENT DOMAIN. In the event any part of the property in which the leased premises are contained is taken by public authority, then Tenant may cancel this Lease. Tenant may claim damages from any such public authority for loss of business, relocation expenses, and damages relating to the value or amount by which the remaining terms of the lease is an asset because of the current rental rates in effect at the time of the taking. Tenant will substantiate his loss to Landlord by showing records which demonstrate a greater than 10% loss of business during the Notice of such proposed termination shall be given at least sixty (60) days prior to termination, but such 60 days shall be included in the ninety (90) day evaluation period. Rent will not be abated during this period.

28. TIME OF THE ESSENCE. Time is hereby declared to be of the essence of each and every provision hereof, and no waiver of any breach thereof, or this covenant as to time.

In the event of any default under such mortgage or mortgages; Landlord agrees that Tenant may cure such default and deduct any advances made for the purpose from future rent to be paid to Landlord.

The rights of Tenant shall survive and this lease shall in all respects continue in full force and effect if Tenant continues to fully perform all of Tenant's obligations hereunder.

Liquor sales plan, Policies, and Procedures

Proposed site of business:

Pre-packaged canned Items will be sold in our café area located to the west inside the building.

Products & Purchasing:

We are only going to be selling pre-packaged canned beverages. We will not be making mixed drinks. We plan on purchasing from a reliable vendor, Bison Beverage.

Staff and Training:

We will have staff 21+ always scheduled in the café area during our open hours to sell beverages. These staff members will also go through the TIPS training course and have company policy training as well before they are scheduled to sell in the café. We have purchased Tips passports already (see doc included) and 2 members of our staff have finished the TIPS training already. We will follow all state and local guidelines under the TIPS training information regarding I.D checks and we will also be giving a colored wrist band to individuals purchasing alcoholic beverages.

Storage:

Storage of the stocked beverages will be in our drink closet that contains a locked door at all times and no one under 21 will be able to access it. Purchased beverages will be dispensed in the café the west side of the building in a designated cooler.

Incident Reporting:

We currently track all incidents that happen within the establishment, and we will add the alcohol related incidents to that same form for proper documentation.
