SECOND AMENDMENT TO RESTAURANT LEASE

This Second Amendment is made and entered into on September 26, by and between Dinco Development LLC ("Landlord") and Redbones LLC ("Tenant").

Landlord and Tenant are parties to a Restaurant Lease Agreement dated February 13, 2020, as amended by Agreement dated February 28, 2028 (collectively "this Lease").

This Lease is for Tenant's Hambones Pizza restaurant at 415 W 17th Street, Suite 180, in Cheyenne, Wyoming ("the Premises"). To add more seating at the Hambones Pizza restaurant, Tenant on this day has leased from Landlord the adjacent space known as 415 W 17th Street, Suite 170. So that the lease for the adjacent space and this Lease will have the same Fixed Expiration Dates, the parties have agreed to extend the Term of this Lease to November 30, 2032.

To accommodate Tenant's application for a Bar and Grill Liquor License, this Lease must allow the sale of alcoholic liquor and malt beverages on the Premises.

Therefore, the parties hereby agree to amend this Lease under the same terms and conditions, except as amended below:

A. Section 1.03 of this Lease is amended to extend the Term. This Lease is hereby amended to change the Fixed Expiration Date to midnight on November 30, 2032.

B. Section 1.04 of this Lease is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

The Premises shall not be used for any other purpose.

Except as specifically set out above, this Lease shall not be changed by this Amendment.

Landlord owns 415 W 17th Street, Suite 170, adjacent to the Restaurant. Tenant desires to lease Suite 170 and use it for additional seating and serving area for the Restaurant.

1.00 Basic Lease Information; Definitions.

1.01 Lease. The Premises are hereby leased to Tenant from Landlord. The term "Lease" means and refers to this basic lease agreement and all addenda and exhibits to it, as well as all future amendments. The Lease will be effective and binding on the parties on the date on which it has been executed by both parties.

1.02 Premises; Building. The term "Premises" shall mean Condominium Unit 17 in the Dinneen Building Commercial Condominium according to the Plat and Map thereof recorded in the official records in and for Laramie County, Wyoming, more commonly known as 415 W 17th Street, Suite 170, Cheyenne, Wyoming. The Premises include the limited common elements adjacent to the Premises and Condominium Unit 17 in the Building according to the Condominium Documents.

As the word is used herein, "Building" means and refers to the Dinneen Commercial Condominium Building. Landlord represents to Tenant that Landlord is the sole, fee simple owner of the Premises, Condominium Unit 17 in the Building.

The Premises include the right of Tenant, in common with all Condominium Unit Owners (including Landlord), and their tenants and invitees, to the nonexclusive use of public elevator, stairways, entrances and sidewalks of the Building.

1.03 Permitted Use. The Premises will be used by Tenant for the purpose of customer dining room services. Food provided from the Restaurant may be served in the Premises. Landlord understands and consents that Tenant may seek a Bar and Grill Liquor License from the City of Cheyenne for the sale of alcoholic liquor or malt beverages from inside the Premises. The Premises shall not be used for any other purpose.

Base Rent includes common area maintenance to be paid for by Landlord under this Lease.

Base Rent does not include the following items to be paid for by Tenant under this Lease: (i) the cost of cleaning and janitorial service for the Premises; (ii) the cost of electricity and natural gas consumed on the Premises; (iii) the cost of domestic water consumed on the Premises; (iv) the cost of data, phone, television, and security services ordered by Tenant for the Premises; and (v) the cost of trash pickup necessary or ordered by Tenant for the Premises.

1.06 Condominium Documents; Association. The term "Condominium Documents" shall mean and refer collectively to the Condominium Declaration and Plat, and the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, and Rules and Regulations of the Dinneen Building Owners Association ("the Association"). The purpose of the Association is to operate, repair and maintain the Common Elements of the Condominium.

1.07 Definitions. Unless expressly defined in this Lease, or unless the context otherwise indicates, capitalized words and terms used in this Lease will have the meanings set forth in the Condominium Documents.

2.00 Rent.

2.01 Rent. The word "rent" refers to Base Rent and any Additional Rent described in Section 2.04. Tenant covenants and agrees to pay rent to Landlord during the Term.

2.02 Time, Place and Manner of Payments; Delinquent Rent. Rent is due and payable in advance on or before the first (1st) day of each month, without any set-off or deduction except as expressly set forth in Sections 3.04 and 11.04. Payments of rent may be made either (i) through an automatic clearing house (ACH) as Landlord may designate in writing, or (ii) by check mailed or delivered to Landlord at 415 W. 17th St., # 100, Cheyenne, WY 82001-4300, or to such other address as Landlord may designate in writing. Landlord does not invoice or send monthly billings for rent.

If rent is received after the date required in this Section 2.02, there shall be a penalty, as Additional Rent, of two percent of such unpaid rent ("Delinquent Rent Fee"), due on or before the date the next payment of rent is due. Any rent or Additional Rent due Landlord under this Lease from Tenant not paid on or before the day specified above shall bear interest at the annual rate of five percent until paid in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Delinquent Rent Fee and the foregoing interest shall not be due and payable until after Landlord has provided notice and a five-day opportunity to cure.

2.03 Pro-Rata Rent. If the Commencement Date is not on the first day of a calendar month, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord, on the such date, a fraction of the rent, the numerator of which is the number of days from and including the Commencement Date to the last day of such calendar month, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such calendar month. This payment shall represent the pro-rata rent for the first calendar month for which rent is due under this Lease. Following payment of the pro-rata rent, if any, regular monthly installments of rent shall be paid in advance.

2.04 Additional Rent. All costs, charges, adjustments and expenses that Tenant is obligated to pay to Landlord under to this Lease shall be deemed Additional Rent. Additional Rent shall not be due and payable until 30 days have passed after written notice thereof has been given by Landlord to Tenant. Tenant shall pay Landlord Additional Rent in the manner specified in Section 2.02. In the event of nonpayment, Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies with respect to the Additional Rent as is provided for nonpayment of rent.

2.05 Tenant-Ordered Costs. Tenant shall be responsible to arrange and pay for (i) cleaning and janitorial services in the Premises, (ii) electricity and natural gas consumed in the Premises, (iii) telephone, data, television, security and other utility charges ordered by Tenant in its name, and (iv) additional trash pickup and disposal services made necessary as a result of Tenant's operations in the Premises combined with the Restaurant. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord from the costs described in this Section.

3.00 Repair and Maintenance Obligations; Alterations.

3.01 Tenant shall at all times during the Term of the Lease, at its own cost and expense, keep and maintain the Premises in good order, condition and repair. Tenant's obligation with respect to the Premises includes the interior of all walls, doors and windows, and all floors (including floor coverings), lamps, sinks and appliances.

3.02 Landlord shall keep and maintain in good order, condition and repair the foundation, and exterior walls, doors and windows of the Premises, except for any damage caused by any act, negligence or omission of Tenant or Tenant's employees, agents, contractors or customers.

3.03 Notwithstanding the above-stated obligations, Tenant's obligation to repair shall not extend to: (i) damage caused by Landlord in connection with the Building; (ii) damage caused by any defects in the design, construction or materials of the Building; (iii) damage caused in whole or in part by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord's agents, employees, invitees or licensees; (iv) damage due to fire, earthquake, acts of God, the elements or other casualties to the extent not required to be insured by Tenant; (v) damage to the interior of the Premises resulting from causes outside the Premises not required to be insured by Tenant; and (vi) damage arising from Landlord's failure to comply with the provisions of this Lease.

3.04 If Tenant provides written notice to Landlord (or oral notice in the case of an emergency such as damage to or destruction of a critical building system) of an event or circumstance that this Lease requires Landlord to repair or maintain, and Landlord fails to respond or to do so within a reasonable time after the receipt of the notice, but in any event not later than 21 days after receipt, then Tenant may proceed to take the required action upon delivery of an additional five business days' notice stating the required action and that Tenant is taking the required action (however, neither of the notices will be required in the event of an emergency which threatens life or imminent personal injury or property damage), and if such action is not taken by Landlord, then Landlord shall promptly reimburse Tenant after receipt by Landlord of an invoice from Tenant for its reasonable and documented expenses in taking the action. If Landlord does not reimburse Tenant for such expenses within 30 days, then Tenant may set-off such amount against rent or Additional Rent then or thereafter due Landlord.

3.05 In the event Tenant defaults in performing any of Tenant's obligations to keep and maintain the Premises in good order, condition and repair as required in this Article 3.00, Landlord may, at Landlord's sole option, at any time, without notice, cure such default for the account and at the expense of Tenant. If Landlord at any time so elects, or is compelled, to cure any such default and incurs any expense in connection therewith, the sum or sums so paid by Landlord, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord as Additional Rent, upon demand by Landlord.

3.06 Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall surrender the Premises to Landlord in good order, condition and repair, as Tenant is obligated under this Article 3.00, ordinary wear and tear, casualty and condemnation excepted.

3.07 Tenant shall not make major alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises without first obtaining the written approval and consent of Landlord.

The parties agree and understand that Tenant intends to make substantial renovations to the Premises, altering the Premises from an office use to a restaurant use. The requirement of the preceding paragraph that Tenant first obtain consent and approval of Landlord shall apply to all material plans and acts of the anticipated renovations, including preparation of basic mechanical, electrical and plumbing plans, and selection of Tenant's general contractor. Tenant shall provide notice to Landlord and otherwise keep Landlord reasonably informed of all material progress and acts until such renovation is substantially complete. Tenant understands Landlord's concern to control noise which may result from an expanded restaurant inside the Building, and agrees to work with Landlord to limit unreasonable noise by both construction and operation methods. All costs incurred in Tenant's alteration and renovation shall be timely paid for by Tenant; Tenant shall indemnify Landlord from any such costs, and shall keep the Premises free and clear of any statutory liens of Tenant's contractors. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord for any liens or damage caused to the Premises as a result of such alteration and renovation. Tenant shall obtain all required permissions and approvals of every local and state agency and authority with jurisdiction. Alterations approved by Landlord and performed by Tenant shall not be subject to any restoration requirement.

4.00 Landlord's Obligations. At all times during the Term of this Lease, Landlord covenants and warrants to: (i) pay real property taxes and assessments levied on the Premises; (ii) pay all properly payable Association assessments and charges with respect to Landlord's ownership of the Premises, and otherwise perform all duties required for Members in good standing with the Association; and (iii) not violate or permit the violation of any law which affects the Premises or the Building.

5.00 Compliance with Laws. Tenant shall, at its expense, promptly observe and comply with all present and future laws, ordinances, requirements, orders, directions, rules and regulations of federal, state, county and city governments, which govern the use of the Premises by Tenant (including regulations or standards as are or may be promulgated under the Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 or similar federal, state or local requirements), whether the same are in force at the commencement of the Term or may in the future be passed, enacted or directed. Tenant shall also procure each and every permit, license, certificate or other authorization now or hereafter required in connection with the lawful and proper use of the Premises. Tenant shall not, however, be required to make any repair to, modification of, or addition to the building structure and/or the building systems in order to comply with the requirements of governmental authorities or with any laws or ordinances.

6.00 Diminution of Services. Landlord shall not be liable for the interruption, curtailment, stoppage or suspension of services and utilities to be furnished by Landlord pursuant to this Lease when necessary by reason of accident or emergency or suspension of utility services, or when necessary for repairs, alterations, replacements or improvements desirable or necessary in the reasonable judgment of Landlord, or for any cause beyond the control of Landlord. Tenant's obligations hereunder shall not be affected or reduced, and Landlord shall have no responsibility or liability for any such interruption, curtailment, stoppage or suspension; however, Landlord shall exercise reasonable diligence to restore any services or utilities so interrupted, curtailed, stopped or suspended. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an interruption or cessation of utilities or services results from a cause within Landlord's reasonable control, and the Premises are not reasonably usable by Tenant for the conduct of Tenant's business as a result thereof, rent shall be abated for the period which commences upon the date Tenant gives notice of such interruption until such utilities and services are restored (or pro-rated if the same only affects some of the Premises, as applicable). If such interruption or cessation results from a cause not within Landlord's reasonable control and continues for five days and the Premises are not reasonably usable by Tenant for the conduct of Tenant's business as a result thereof, rent shall be abated for the period which commences upon the date Tenant gives notice of such interruption until such utilities and services are restored (or pro-rated if the same only affects some of the Premises, as applicable).

7.00 Entry by Landlord or Association Manager.

7.01 Tenant agrees and understands that Landlord or the Association manager, or their agents or contractors, may enter the Premises to inspect, or to perform or facilitate performance of emergency or extraordinary repairs to the Premises or the Building. To perform routine services for the Premises or the Building, Landlord and the Association manager shall provide Tenant with reasonable prior verbal notice of such entry, and at all times shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with Tenant's use of the Premises.

7.02 Landlord may enter the Premises to show the Premises upon reasonable prior verbal notice to Tenant, provided that Landlord may only show the Premises to prospective buyers of the Premises at any time.

8.00 Assignment or Sublease.

8.01 Tenant will not assign this Lease or hypothecate or mortgage the same or sublet the Premises or any part thereof without the consent of Landlord. For the purposes of this Article 8.00, Landlord agrees that it will not withhold its consent to an assignment or subletting, so long as the proposed subtenant or assignee, in the reasonable determination of Landlord is of a character and quality similar to that of other tenants in the Building or in other first-class buildings of similar age, size and quality in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

8.02 Not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of a proposed assignment or sublease, Tenant shall provide notice to Landlord of the proposed assignment or sublease. Landlord shall indicate its consent or non-consent thereto within ten days after receipt of such notice. If Landlord fails to respond within ten days after receipt of such notice, then Landlord shall be deemed to have approved the proposed assignment or sublease.

8.03 In the event of any assignment or subletting pursuant to this Article, Tenant shall remain fully liable as a primary obligor and principal for Tenant's obligations and responsibilities under this Lease, including, but not limited to, the payment of all rent and charges required under this Lease, and the performance of all obligations to be performed under this Lease.

8.04 Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have no right to withhold consent to any transaction whereby Tenant merges with or into another entity, or sells all or substantially all of its assets to another entity.

9.00 Insurance.

9.01 Tenant Insurance. Tenant shall obtain and provide, on or before the Commencement Date, and keep in force at all times during the Term of this Lease, Comprehensive General Liability coverage, with contractual liability endorsement, relating to the Premises on an occurrence basis with a minimum single limit of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) aggregate.

Such insurance shall be effected under valid and enforceable policies (which may cover the Premises and other locations), and shall contain a provision under which the insurer agrees not to cancel the insurance without prior notice to Landlord in accordance with the provisions of the policies or if the same does not exist then Tenant shall provide Landlord with such notice.

On or before the Commencement Date, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a certificate evidencing the aforesaid insurance coverage. Tenant shall use reasonable efforts to provide renewal certificates to Landlord at least 30 days prior to the expiration date of each policy for which a certificate was furnished but in all events within 30 days after such expiration date.

9.02 Mutual Waiver of Subrogation. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord and Tenant hereby waive any rights each may have against the other on account of any loss of or damage to their respective property, the Premises, its contents, or other portions of the Building arising from any risk which is required to be insured against.

10.00 Surrender of Premises; Holding Over.

10.01 Upon Expiration or Termination. At the termination of this Lease or Tenant's right of possession, Tenant shall remove Tenant's property from the Premises, and quit and surrender the Premises to Landlord, as provided in Section 3.06 above. Tenant's obligation to observe or perform this covenant shall survive the termination of this Lease.

10.02 Abandoned Personal Property; Storage; Sale Pursuant to Lien. Tenant shall not abandon personal property on the Premises. If Tenant does abandon personal property on the Premises, then with respect to such personal property abandoned on the Premises, Landlord shall have the right to remove and store such property. Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable costs and charges incurred by Landlord to remove and store abandoned property, whether in a public warehouse or upon Landlord's own property. Landlord shall have a lien against all abandoned personal property removed and stored (but not otherwise), and may proceed to sell all right, title and interest of Tenant in and to such property, pursuant to law and after due notice to Tenant, in order to recover Landlord's costs and charges to remove and store such property.

10.03 Holding Over. In the event Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the Fixed Expiration Date with the consent of Landlord and without the execution of a new lease, Tenant shall be deemed to be occupying the Premises as a tenant from month-to-month, subject to all of the conditions, provisions and obligations of this Lease insofar as the same are applicable to a month-to-month tenancy until the termination of such tenancy. Such month-to-month tenancy may be terminated by either party effective as of the end of any calendar month by 28 days prior written notice to the other party. If Tenant remains in possession of the Premises without the consent of Landlord or remains in possession of the Premises following the termination of a hold-over month-to-month tenancy created pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord a use and occupancy charge equal to 110% of the monthly rent in effect immediately prior thereto, computed on a daily basis, and otherwise subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease and no other damages. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to waive Landlord's right of re-entry or any other right under this Lease or at law, and shall survive the termination of this Lease.

11.00 Default and Remedies.

11.01 Tenant Breach or Default. Tenant shall have breached this Lease and shall be considered in default if: (i) Tenant fails to pay any rent when due under this Lease, and does not make the delinquent payment within ten business days after receipt of written notice thereof from Landlord, or (ii) Tenant fails to perform or comply with any of the other covenants or conditions of this Lease, and such failure continues for a period of 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof from Landlord. If the nature of Tenant's obligation is such that more than 30 days are required for performance, then Tenant shall not be in default if Tenant commences performance within such 30-day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes the same to completion.

11.02 Effect of Tenant Default. In the event of any breach of this Lease by Tenant as defined in Section 11.01, the rights of Landlord shall be as follows:

a. Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease, as well as all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises, by giving to Tenant not less than 30 days' written notice of the cancellation and termination. On expiration of the time fixed in the notice, this Lease, and all right, title and interest of Tenant in the Premises, shall terminate in the same manner and with the same force and effect, except as to Tenant's liability, as of the date fixed in the notice of termination as if such date was the Fixed Termination Date. On termination, Landlord may recover from Tenant all damages proximately resulting from the breach, including the cost of recovering the Premises and any other damages that Landlord can prove have proximately resulted from the breach.

b. On termination, Landlord may re-enter the Premises immediately, remove the personal property of Tenant abandoned therein, store such property at a place selected by Landlord, and sell such property pursuant to Section 10.02.

c. In addition to Tenant's liability to Landlord for breach of the Lease, Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable expenses of the reletting the Premises, for the reasonable and necessary costs to clean and repair the Premises as Tenant is obligated under Article 3.00 incurred by Landlord, and for the difference between the rent received by Landlord under a new lease agreement and the installments of rent that are due for the same period under this Lease.

d. Landlord shall apply any rent received from reletting the Premises as follows: (i) to reduce Tenant's indebtedness to Landlord under this Lease, not including indebtedness for rent, (ii) to expenses incurred to relet, clean and repair the Premises, (iii) to rent due under this Lease, and (iv) to payment of future rent under this Lease as it becomes due.

e. Landlord may, after reletting the Premises, terminate the Lease for the breach on which Landlord had based the re-entry and subsequent reletting.

f. The remedies herein given to Landlord shall be cumulative, and the exercise of any one remedy by Landlord shall not be to the exclusion of any other remedy.

11.03 Landlord Breach or Default. Landlord shall have breached this Lease and shall be considered in default hereunder if Landlord fails to perform or comply with any covenants or conditions of this Lease, and such failure continues for a period of 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof from Tenant. Said notice shall describe Landlord's failure with specificity. If the nature of Landlord's obligation is such that more than 30 days are required for performance, then Landlord shall not be in default if Landlord commences performance within such 30-day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes the same to completion.

11.04 Effect of Landlord Default. In the event of any breach of this Lease by Landlord as defined in Section 11.03, the rights of Tenant shall be as follows:

a. Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease as a result of Landlord's default.

b. If Landlord's default is not cured after Tenant provides notice thereof within the amount of time established in Section 11.03, then Tenant may perform such obligation on Landlord's account. If any action is taken by Tenant pursuant to the terms of this subsection, then Landlord shall promptly reimburse Tenant after receipt by Landlord of an invoice from Tenant for its reasonable and documented expenses in taking the action. If Landlord does not reimburse Tenant for such expenses within 30 days, then Tenant may set-off such amount against rent or Additional Rent then or thereafter due Landlord.

c. The remedies herein given to Tenant shall be cumulative, and the exercise of any one remedy by Tenant shall not be to the exclusion of any other remedy.

11.05 No Waiver. No failure of Landlord or Tenant to enforce any term of this Lease shall be deemed a waiver, nor shall any acceptance of partial payment of rent or Additional Rent be deemed a waiver of Landlord's rights to the full amount.

12.00 Subordinate to Mortgages.

12.01 Subordination. Subject to Section 12.03 below, this Lease is and shall be subject and subordinate to mortgages which may now or hereafter encumber the Premises, and to all renewals, modifications, amendments, consolidations, replacements, or extensions thereof. This clause shall be self-operative and no further instrument of subordination shall be required by any mortgagee. In confirmation of such subordination, Tenant without cost or charge to Landlord, shall execute promptly any certificate or instrument of subordination reasonably requested by Landlord, provided such instrument or certificate is in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Tenant.

12.02 Notice of mortgagees. If there is any act or omission by Landlord which would or may give Tenant the right to terminate this Lease or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant will not exercise the right until:

i. Tenant has given written notice of any such act or omission to Landlord and to any holder of a mortgage whose name has been previously furnished to Tenant by notice, at the last address so furnished; and

ii. Following the giving of such notice, a reasonable period of time for remedying such act or omission (but not in excess of the period of time as provided in this Lease for Landlord to remedy such act or omission) has elapsed, during which time period none of the parties to whom notice was given has remedied or commenced to remedy the act or omission with reasonable diligence.

12.03 Nondisturbance of Tenant. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.01, the subordination of this Lease to any later executed superior mortgage, or to any later renewal, modification, replacement or extension of a superior mortgage which now encumbers the Premises, is subject to the express conditions that the holder of any such mortgage or related instrument sign a non-disturbance agreement with Tenant whereby such holder agrees that so long as this Lease is in full force and effect and Tenant is not in default of the terms and provisions of this Lease beyond any applicable grace periods, Tenant shall not be evicted from the Premises, Tenant's leasehold estate under this Lease shall not be terminated or disturbed, nor shall any of Tenant's rights under this Lease be affected in any way, by reason of any default under the superior mortgage.

13.00 Parking.

13.01 Customer Parking. Parking for Tenant's customers, vendors and invitees, at no additional cost, is available in unreserved parking spaces in the parking area adjacent to the Building.

13.02 Employee Parking. Tenant's employees are prohibited from parking in the parking area adjacent to the Building. Tenant will communicate to its employees, and use reasonable efforts to uphold and observe, the rules posted in the said parking area.

The general prohibition against employee parking as stated in the previous paragraph shall not alter, change or limit the exception for Tenant's employees acting as pizza delivery drivers as set out in the parties' lease for the Restaurant.

14.00 Rules, Covenants, Representations and Indemnities.

14.01 Building Rules. Tenant, its employees and agents shall observe and comply with any Rules and Regulations adopted by the Condominium Association governing use of the Building. Tenant, its employees and agents shall also observe and comply with Landlord's Building Rules as set out on Exhibit B. Landlord may make and notify Tenant of reasonable changes in and additions to the its Building Rules, provided that such changes and additions are applicable to all tenants on the ground level of the Building and do no conflict with Rules and Regulations adopted by the Condominium Association. Except as required by law or in the case of an emergency, changes and additions to the Landlord's Building Rules shall provide for notice and opportunity for comment before a proposed effective date. To the extent such Landlord's Building Rules conflict with specific provisions of the Lease the terms of the Lease shall prevail.

The parties agree and understand that the Landlord may propose for consideration and adoption of the Condominium Association board of directors amendments to the Condominium Documents concerning noise resulting from owners' and tenants' uses in the Building.

14.02 ADA. Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that the Premises is in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq.) ("ADA"), and Landlord shall indemnify Tenant for any claim, cost or expense arising out of the breach of such warranty, including the cost of remedial work undertaken by Tenant. Landlord is solely responsible for ADA compliance designed and constructed as part of the Premises, including access standards relating to doors and entrances.

Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that placement of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment within the Premises, and any alterations to the Premises permitted by this Lease or by Landlord shall comply with the ADA. Tenant agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any claims, losses, costs, damages or other expenses arising from any breach of the foregoing warranty and representations.

14.03 Environmental Conditions. Landlord hereby informs Tenant that the original city block on which the Building is located (Block 392) is the subject of a Remedy Agreement between Landlord and the Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality pursuant to which Landlord has voluntarily agreed to remediate certain conditions which exist on said Block 392. The Remedy Agreement is a public record. Upon request Landlord shall provide to Tenant a true and correct image of the Remedy Agreement, and related letters and reports which are public records.

Landlord agrees that it will not cause any hazardous substances to be brought upon, kept or used in or about the Building in violation of any environmental laws. Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant from and against all claims, suits, demands, response costs, contribution costs, liabilities, losses or damages, directly or indirectly arising out of the existence, use, generation, migration, storage, transportation or disposal of hazardous substances in, on, or under the Building or in the groundwater under the Building and the migration or transportation of hazardous substances to or from the Building, to the extent that any of the foregoing (i) is caused by Landlord, its agents, servants, employees and contractors, or any party other than Tenant or its agents, employees or contractors, or (ii) exists as of the date of this Lease. The foregoing indemnity shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

15.00 Notices.

15.01 Unless otherwise allowed according to this Lease, all notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications between the parties shall be in writing.

15.02 Notices may be given by any or several of the following methods: (i) a nationally recognized next-day courier service, such as USPS Express Mail, FedEx or UPS, (ii) traceable First-Class or Priority U.S. Mail, or (iii) hand-delivery addressed to the parties as follows:

or such other address as either party may specify in a notice given in compliance with this Article.

15.03 Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing shall be deemed to have been given on the date the same is received or refused to be received.

16.00 Option to Renew the Lease. Provided that this Lease is in full force and effect, Tenant is granted an exclusive option to renew this Lease for a Renewal Term of seven years.

The option shall be exercised only by Tenant giving Landlord written notice (the "Renewal Notice") received by Landlord not less than three months prior to the expiration of the Term of this Lease. Within 30 days following Landlord's receipt of the Renewal Notice, Landlord shall submit to Tenant in writing a proposal for Base Rent during the Renewal Term, not to exceed 120% of the then current Base Rent.

Within 30 days following receipt of Landlord's Base Rent proposal, Tenant and Landlord shall agree in writing upon the Base Rent for the Renewal Term. Absent such agreement, Tenant's rights pursuant to this Article 16.00 shall terminate and be of no further force and effect and this Lease shall terminate at the end of the current Term in accordance with its terms.

If this Lease is in fact renewed pursuant to the foregoing, then any such Renewal Term shall be upon all of the same terms and conditions contained in this Lease, except the Base Rent shall be the amount determined as set forth above.

17.00 Guarantor. As further security for performance of Tenant under the Lease, Jason Hammer has signed and delivered a separate guaranty agreement, the receipt of which is acknowledged by Landlord.

18.00 Miscellaneous.

18.01 Signage. Tenant agrees that its exterior signage and window dressings shall at all times comply with City of Cheyenne, Condominium Documents and Building standards. All Tenant's exterior signs, original and future, must first be approved by Landlord.

18.02 Peaceful Possession. Landlord covenants that so long as Tenant is not in default under this Lease beyond the applicable notice and cure period, Tenant will have, hold and enjoy the peaceful and quiet possession of the Premises during the Term of this Lease.

18.03 Prior Agreements. This Lease represents the entire agreement between Landlord and Tenant with respect the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior writings, communications, discussions, representations or understandings, whether written or oral.

18.05 Authority. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that each individual executing this Lease on behalf of Tenant is authorized to do so. Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that each individual executing this Lease on behalf of Landlord is authorized to do so.

Landlord and Tenant have executed the Lease as of the day and year first above written.

Chapter 5.12 Requirements

All employees, servers, bartenders, managers on duty, and supervisory staff, who sell, dispense or supervise the sale of alcoholic beverages will be required to complete the TIPS program.

All employees will be trained to recognize intoxication, physiological/behavioral effects of alcohol, proper ID checking (spotting false/fake ID's) intervention techniques, and problem-solving strategies relevant to applicable laws. Employees will also be trained to handle emergencies and aggressive or intoxicated patrons.

Management will also receive specialized training to ensure legal compliance with Wyoming state and local alcohol laws. This includes understanding liability risks, maintaining consistent service standards, and properly handling record keeping, incident documentation, and policy compliance.
